Purpose	The University has established a fund to assist both continuing and fixed-te full-time and fractional female academics to re-establish and advance their careers during or following a period of maternity/adoption leave.
	This procedure sets out the conditions, funding and application process for fund.
Scope	This procedure applies to female academics returning from maternity/adopted leave or intending to access maternity/adoption leave.

