

Volume 8, Number 1, 2011

[Articles]

Foreign Language Education and Foreign Language Teaching Materials in Korea: The Chinese Language Primer Nogoldae (Lao Qida, "The Mr. Cathayan")

Pages: 1. 28

Kwang Chung

Abstract: The Nogeoldae (Lao Qita) was first published in late Koryeo, namely during the time of king Chungmok in order to help study the Han-er language, Yuan's official language. I have written this paper to investigate how the Nogeoldae, a very important resource for historical study of Chinese, was published, what the Nogeoldae dealt with, and for what purpose it was published.

Key Events in the Democratisation of Taiwan and South Korea: The Kaohsiung Incident and the Kwangju Uprising

Pages: 29. 56

J. Bruce Jacobs

Abstract: Korea and Taiwan, the two 'Third Wave' Democracies in Asia, both democratised in the late 1980s. During democratisation both had 'key events' at similar times, the Kaohsiung Incident of 10 December 1979 and the Kwangju Uprising of 18-27 May 1980. The citizens of Kwangju with local leadership faced a military government. National figures led the Kaohsiung Incident against a more stable civilian government.

Going South: Re-Orienting to Korean Studies from an Antipodean Perspective

Pages: 57. 76

Hyaeweol Choi

Abstract: This paper explores some strategic aspects of doing Korean Studies in Australia within the context of greater interdependence between Australia and the region of Asia and the Pacific. It 0(e)-3(rnm4a(m)-6(b)68()83(s:)-3(h)6(e)-3())(rea)o1(a)--3(a)-(d

Australian National University Library. Users are relatively few and thus funds are limited. The survey helps us understand who is using these resources and, hopefully, will facilitate an increase in both the number of available databases and the number of users.