5.2 Assessment criteria and standards

Further details and marking criteria for each assessment will be provided to students closer to the assessment release date (see 4.1: UNSW Assessment Design Procedure).

5.3 Submission of assessment tasks

Written assessments: In accordance with UNSW Assessment Policy written pieces of assessment (ie assignment) must be submitted online via Turnitin. No paper or emailed copies will be accepted.

Late penalties: deduction of marks for late assignment submissions will be in accordance with School policy (see: Psychology Student Guide). Note that the late submission final deadline is 4pm Wednesday August 10th (unless an ELP or Special Consideration applies).

Special Consideration: Students who are unable to complete an assessment task by the assigned due date can apply for special consideration. Students should also note that UNSW has a Fit to Sit/Submit rule for all assessments. If a student wishes to submit an application for special consideration for an exam or assessment, the application must be submitted prior to the start of the exam or before an assessment is submitted. If a student sits the exam/submits an assignment, they are declaring themselves well enough to do so and are unable to subsequently apply for special consideration. If a student becomes ill on the day of the exam, they must provide evidence dated within 24 hours of the exam or the assessment deadline, with their application.

Special consideration applications must be submitted to the online portal along with Third Party supporting documentation. Students who have experienced significant illness or misadventure during the assessment period may be eligible. Only circumstances de control are eligible for special consideration. Except in unusual circumstances, the duration of circumstances impacting academic work must be more than 3 consecutive days, or a total of 5 days within the teaching period. If the special consideration application is approved, students may be given an extended due date, or an alternative assessment/supplementary examination may be set. For more information see https://student.unsw.edu.au/special-consideration.

Alternative assessments: will be subject to approval and implemented in accordance with UNSW Assessment Implementation Procedure.

Supplementary examinations: will be made available for students with approved special consideration application and implemented in accordance with UNSW Assessment Policy.

5.4. Feedback on assessments

Feedback on all pieces of assessment in this course will be provided in accordance with UNSW Assessment Policy.

FEEDBACK

Like other courses, you will receive feedback on your performance. However, given the nature of this online course and the tasks you will be completing, you may not be familiar with all the forms of feedback that you will receive. Specifically, the main types of feedback that you can expect as you move through the topic include:

1. Forum feedback: In most Modules you will be asked to post to the Moodle discussion forum. A key benefit of using discussion forums is that you can read what several of your classmates think about an issue/question/etc that you have been asked to consider. It is important to make sure you read the discussion forum because this
